Located in Post, Texas, Camp C.W. Post is nestled between ravines of the West Texas Caprock System. With its western theme, the camp offers an adventure for every scout. Through various outdoor activities and programs Scouts can discover adventure in the Great Plains.

Camp Post offers a range of activities for adventure seeking scouts including horseback riding, mountain biking, climbing, swimming, and a stellar shooting sports program. With a 135,000-gallon pool, campers also have the opportunity to canoe and kayak to beat the summer heat. Scouts of all ages can find adventure, advancement, and achievement at C.W. Post Memorial Scout Camp.

Location

Camp Post is located just a couple miles southwest of the community of Post, Tx. You will be 1 hour from Lubbock, 2 hours from Abilene, and 2600 feet above sea level.

Branding

Friday only. Bring your hats, sticks and belts! The Curry Comb of Camp Post is known far and wide and you could wear it proudly on your own camping gear!

Branding is only suitable for certain resilient materials. We do not recommend branding anything thin, meltable, or living.

Merit Badge Open Work

Time can be scheduled to work with your counselor after hours as needed. We will do whatever it takes to help make sure you get the instruction you need to complete your badges!
